Beschrijving voor Communicatie Description for Communication	Max 150 woorden Max 150 words O.A.T.S. are high-fibre snack crackers made from upcycled oat pulp, the nutritious byproduct that is left after oat milk production. Inspired by the comforting taste of banana bread, O.A.T.S. combines banana, cinnamon, and vanilla into a deliciously sweet yet low-sugar between-meal snack. Enriched with prebiotic chicory root inulin, these crackers help support gut health and make increasing your daily fiber intake easy and enjoyable. Designed for everyday life, O.A.T.S. comes in convenient portion-sized packaging, perfect for work, school, the gym, or on the go. By giving oat pulp a valuable second life, O.A.T.S. delivers a snack that is good for you and food waste reduction.
